DANGER TO CHILDREN.

A Serious Matter for the Attention of Mothers.

How many people know that scrofula is only another name for a slow, tubercular inflammation of the glands? Children affected with scrofula are very likely to have lung trouble and consumption. Father John's Medicine, prescribed for the late Rev. John O'Brien, of Lowell, Mass., fifty years ago, cures scrofula because it strengthens the mucous membrane of the stomach and acts directly upon the liver and kidneys. It is a food medicine and affords nutrition at the same time that it has a gentle laxative effect, a property possessed by none of the emulsions and similar preparations. It is the best remedy ever prescribed for throat and lung troubles. It contains no poisonous drugs or alcohol. The $1.00 size bottles contain three times the quantity of the 50-cent size.

wick county, Va., and a gallant member of the Union army in the war, died on April 28th at his home in Tulare county, California. He was sixty-nine years of age.

Mr. Field was one of the few survivors of the charge at Gettysburg. He received a gunshot wound in the body, but, crawling from the bloody field, and was later picked up still living.

Resolutions of Respect.

At a meeting of the Richmond Stock Exchange this morning the following paper was unanimously passed and ordered to be placed on record:

The State of Virginia has hardly produced a son more devoted to her ideals, more established in her principles, or more imbued with the sense of propriety and right, and more honored than Mr. Virgilus Newton, who has left this city. He was favored with a citizen more exemplary in all his business life and in all his walk and conversation.

His entrance upon life was heroic. But the incident that first called forth his manhood was only the keynote to his noble life. The modesty, that made no reference to it, graced all his dealings with his fellow-citizens.

He was a citizen of the truest, highest type, an exemplar of business, fidelity and courtesy, from whose presence dishonor and littleness retired abashed and ashamed.

The board records with reverence and affection their grateful memory, and offer to his afflicted family their warm and profound condolence.

RICHARD H. MAURY, Secretary.

At a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Richmond Paper Manufacturing Company, held on Friday, May 27th, 1904, at 12 o'clock noon, the following resolutions were adopted:

Therefore, be it

Resolved, First, That in the death of Mr. Virgilus Newton this board has sustained the loss of one of its most valuable, useful and cheerful members, one able to contribute his time and talents to promote the interests of this company and the community in which he lived. That the board will miss his wise counsel, and that each and every member mourns the loss of his friendship and co-operation and companionship in the future meetings of the board and conduct of the affairs of the company.

and wise counsel in times of financial uncertainty have been of inestimable value to this association. To the administration of such men as Mr. Newton is due that absolute confidence which the public has always felt in the strength of the financial institutions of this city. As a citizen he was generous and public spirited, always ready to aid liberally in a financial way, and by earnest and forceful speech whatever was for the public good. He felt a lively interest in civic affairs, and good government found in him an earnest advocate. As a man, Mr. Newton was a thorough gentleman, genial and warm-hearted, unostentatious and always considerate of those with whom he came in contact.

That the bank has lost an official who had stamped upon every act of the bank the nobleness and purity of his character, and the community has lost a citizen whose disinterested patriotism was an ever living incentive to his fellow-citizens.
